CMS Innovation Center - Milestones and Updates Data Dictionary
Term Name	Definition
Model Name	Plain text field usually including the name of the main model, demonstration, initiative or program and type of information presented. Identifies which detail page to populate.
Date	Date and time field containing the date in which the milestone or update occurred or will occur.
Announced/Updated	Plain text field indicating the type of milestone or update. Choices are either announced or updated.
Update	Plain text field containing the text that makes up the content of the milestone or update.
Link ("Learn More")	Website URL field containing the online direct uniform resource locator (URL) for a resource containing additional information about the content of the milestone or update.
Unique ID	Number field containing identification number unique to each dataset row.